

Brown Bag Lenten Lunches

in the Bistro
Wednesdays

NOON—1 PM

Feb 22– March 28

Brown Bag Lenten Lunches will take place each Wednesday during the season of Lent. EVERYONE is invited to attend ANYTIME you can!

Each week, join us at noon in the Bistro. Bring your lunch.* Brown Bag optional. After eating, we will watch a ten-minute video featuring Adam Hamilton, whose talks are based on his recent book, “Final Words from the Cross.” The remaining time will be spent in study, sharing and prayer.

Although no childcare is provided, children are welcome to play quietly in the Library/Bistro, where Brown Bag Lenten Lunches will be held. FMI, please contact Layne Miller.

*Ash Wednesday, February 22 will be the first of the six Brown Bag Lenten Lunches. The format of this premier event will be a bit different than the others. Soup will be provided. Participants are invited to bring a side dish to share: crackers & cheese, a vegetable or other deli tray, bread, dessert.

Please make us aware of your interest & participation by signing up outside the office of the Director of Connectional Ministry, sending an email or writing a note on your Connection card.

Brown Bag Lenten Lunches will be built around Adam Hamilton’s newest book, Final Words from the Cross. Participants are invited to purchase the book online or from a local retail store and read a chapter each week. This purchase is NOT a requirement or necessary for enjoying the weekly lunches, fellowship and discussion.
